

The good news for SPVS members is that Carefree Credit will reimburse £50 of your SPVS membership fee when you sign up and receive FCA authorization - you need this authority before you are able to offer any form of finance options to your clients. They will also rebate a further £50 if you write more than £25k worth of credit business in a calendar year. They have dedicated office team to assist with the FCA application and will provide you with any guidance and templates you need.
